Numb. 6722

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 29. to Saturday November 2. 1728.

St. James's, October 30.

THIS being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-Day, His Majesty received at Noon the Compliments of the Nobility, foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction. At Night there was a Ball. The Appearance was at both Times very numerous, and extremely splendid. On this Occasion the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

Madrid, Oct. 25. This last Week the Duke de Vejar, Nephew to the Marques de Valero, late President of the Council of the Indies, invited the Princess of Brazil, the Prince of Asturias, Don Carlos, and Don Philip, with several of the Foreign Ministers and Persons of Distinction, to la Moxaleja, a Seat of his within three Leagues of this Place, where they took the Diversion of Hunting, and were afterwards entertained at Dinner by the Duke. This being the Birth-day of her Catholick Majesty, who entered into the 37th Year of her Age, the Court went out of Mourning, and there was a very numerous Concourse of Foreign Ministers and Persons of Distinction at the Old Palace, to compliment her Majesty on this Occasion.

Fontainebleau, Nov. 5, N. S. His most Christian Majesty having taken Physick two Days sooner than was intended, it is said his Departure from this Place is fixed to the 20th instead of the 22d Instant; there remaining nothing for his entire Recovery but another Purge or two, and a little Time for gathering Strength. It is said, that the Duke de Mazarin is going to retire with a few Domesticks to a Religious House called the Institution of the Oratory, where he will live in the Apartment of the late Chancellour Pontchartrain, which is getting ready for that Purpose. The Cardinal de Noailles dined at the Sorbonne the Day of St. Ursula Patroness of that College, and a Pastoral Instruction is soon expected from his Eminence upon his Acceptation of the Bull Unigenitus. The Curate of St. Louis has been at the Head of a Deputation from the Sorbonne, to compliment Cardinal de Noailles upon his Acceptation of the said Bull. The General of the Benedictins, and the Procureur of the Abbey of St. Germain, have likewise complimented his Eminence upon the same Occasion. The Bishop of St. Malo has followed the Example of the Archbishop of Paris, and has published a Mandate in his Diocese, signed by the Canons of his Chapter, much to the same Purpose, and in the same Words as the Mandate of his Eminence.
